Professional Summary

A dynamic and interdisciplinary B.Tech student specializing in Artificial Intelligence and Data Science at Vishwakarma University, Pune, with a strong passion for merging technology with creativity. With hands-on experience in cybersecurity and generative AI, I aim to build secure, innovative digital ecosystems. Beyond the tech world, I bring an artistic perspective through photography, visual storytelling, and media design. As a Media and Communications Strategist, I've led initiatives in social media, content creation, and PR, showcasing my ability to connect tech and creativity effectively. Skilled in Python, C/C++, AI, and digital security, and certified in project risk management and HR foundations, I am committed to learning, evolving, and contributing to projects that are both technically sound and visually compelling.
